International Organization of Physical Therapists in Mental Health

CONSTITUTION

1: Name

The name of the organization shall be the International Organization of Physical Therapists in Mental Health, hereafter referred to as the Organization.

2: Definition/ Structure 1

Preamble

2.1. The Organization is a non-governmental affiliation of physical therapists and their member countries who are interested in promoting the mental health of people worldwide.

2.2. The Organization is a recognized sub-group of the World Confederation for Physical Therapy.

2.3. The Organization and its Members hereafter called the Members are the recognized Subsection/clinical interest group/ division of the parent Physical Therapy Associations, or the Associations themselves, recognized by the World Confederation for Physical Therapy.

2.5. The Organization shall be composed of six or more Members who are members of the recognized mental health section of their respective WCPT Member Organizations and collectively from two or more WCPT Regions. Members of the mental Health subsection/ clinical interest group/ division of the National Member Organization shall also be members of the national member organization.

3: Objectives

Objectives of the Organization shall not be in conflict with the Articles of Association of WCPT.

The objectives of the Organization are:

3.1. To foster the co-operation between physical therapists practising in mental health throughout the world.

3.2. To encourage improved standards and consistency of physical therapy practice in mental health care.

3.3. To advance practice by communication and exchange of information.

3.4. To encourage scientific research and promote opportunities for sharing of knowledge of new developments in the field of mental health care

3.5. To assist WCPT member organizations in the development of recognized subsections/clinical interest groups/divisions in mental health care.

4: Membership

The organization's membership shall be composed of recognized Mental Health subsections of parent National Physical Therapy organizations which are WCPT Member Organizations in good standing, or the associations themselves. These members shall be represented in the IOPTMH by a representative elected from the Mental Health subsection/clinical interest group/division and approved by the National Parent Body.

4.1. Full Member

A subsection in mental health from each of the WCPT Member Organizations may be admitted to membership, provided it meets the requirements laid down in article 15 of WCPT Articles of Association and approved by the IOPTMH's Executive Committee.

4.2. Member Elect

A subsection, as the principal organization representing Mental Health may, while awaiting confirmation of Member status at a General Meeting, become a Member Elect for a period between approval by the Executive Committee and confirmation of Membership at the General Meeting. Full membership shall be granted if approved by two thirds majority of the voting delegates at a General Meeting.

4.3. Associate Member

A WCPT Member Organization which has not yet a Mental Health subsection in place, but wishes to achieve full membership in the future, or is too small to ever have a recognized subsection may become an Associate Member.

4.4. Special Member

Special membership may be conferred by two-thirds (2/3) assent of the voting delegates at a General Meeting. Special membership is an honorary category that is reserved for individuals rendering valuable service to practice of Mental Health internationally. Member Elect, Associate and Special Members shall not have the right to vote, or hold office.

4.5. Application for Membership

The Executive Committee shall regulate the procedure for membership applications.

4.6. Granting Membership

The Executive Committee shall assess all applications for membership and make recommendations to the voting delegates at the next General Meeting. Membership shall be granted if approved by a two-thirds majority.

4.7. Termination and Reinstatement of Membership

4.7.1. Termination of Membership

A member may terminate membership by giving six months advance notice in writing to the Executive Committee and by paying all outstanding subscriptions.

4.7.2. The executive Committee may terminate membership on default in payment of subscriptions. Membership ceases if the current year subscription is not paid by December 31st or if the actions or policy of a member is detrimental to the best interest of the Organization or is likely to bring the Organization into disrepute.

Liabilities to the Organization are not cancelled. If all subscriptions in arrears are paid by June 30th in the succeeding year then the Member, if eligible, may be restored to membership without reapplication. In exceptional circumstances the Executive Committee shall have the power to postpone, waive or suspend the subscription required.

4.7.3. Reinstatement to Membership

An organization which has been excluded from membership under Article 4.7.2 for default in payment of subscription, may apply to the Executive Committee for reinstatement provided that no more than two years have elapsed since the termination of its membership; and provided that it is still eligible and the appropriate annual subscriptions for the intervening period are paid in full, the Executive Committee shall decide if the organization may be reinstated as a member of the Organization. If more than two years elapse, the country needs to reapply for membership in the Organization.

5: Duties of members

5.1. Members shall comply with the Organization Constitution which shall not conflict with the WCPT Articles of Association.

5.2. Members shall pay the subscriptions in accordance with Article 11.

5.3. Members shall send a voting delegate to at least one out of two consecutive General Meetings.

5.4. Members shall keep the Executive Committee informed of any events or developments in their countries of interest to the Organization.

5.5. Members shall do all in their power to promote the objectives and work of the Organization.

5.6. Members shall be in good standing as determined by their National Association.

6: Rights of Members

6.1. Members shall participate in the affair of the Organization in accordance with the constitution.

6.2. Members shall participate in policy development by making suggestions to the Executive Committee and the General Meeting.

6.3. Members may request technical support and assistance in the efforts to improve the situation of physical therapists practicing mental health in their countries.

6.4. Members of the Organization shall vote in electing a delegate to the WCPT General Meeting who has the right to speak but not to make or second motions, or to vote.

6.5. Members may vote on all Organizations matters raised at the general Meeting, including the General Election.

7: Executive Committee

The governing body of the Organization shall be composed of physical therapists only:

7.1. The elected members of the Executive Committee of the Organization will be President, Vice-president, Secretary, Treasurer, and one elected member. At least two WCPT regions shall be represented.

8.7. To make provisions for the holding of a Congress and to stipulate the conditions for their organization.

- 8.8. To appoint committees, sub-committees and working parties as necessary.
- 8.9. To make awards as approved by the General Meeting.
- 8.10. To do all such other activities as will advance the objectives of the Organization.

9: Executive Meetings

- 9.1. Executive Committee meetings will be held at least every fourth year: the place, date and time to be decided by the Executive Committee. A meeting must take place two years after each attended meeting.
- 9.2. Where possible the Executive Committee meeting will be held in conjunction with a conference or scientific meeting.
- 9.3. Additional Executive Committee meetings may be called by the President at the request of the Executive Committee or at the request of one third of the members. Additional meetings may be conducted via facsimile, telephone or internet.
- 9.4. To transact business at an Executive Committee Meeting there shall be at least a majority of the Executive Committee present, representing members in good standing.
- 9.5. Notice of meetings shall be given at least six (6) months in advance and the agenda circulated two (2) months prior to an Executive Committee meeting.
- 9.6. The meeting shall be chaired by the President who shall regulate the proceedings and the procedures including (with the consent of the meeting) adjournment of business. In the absence of the President, the Vice President shall have power to conduct and chair the meeting. In the absence of a Vice President, the members present who are entitled to vote shall have power to select a member of the Executive Committee to conduct and chair any such meeting. The Chair of the meeting must approve any guests invited or wishing to attend the meeting.
- 9.7. Minutes of the meeting shall be taken and distributed to all members when confirmed by the Executive Committee.
- 9.8. Each Executive Committee Member shall have one vote. An Executive member unable to be present at an Executive Meeting may cast a vote on any motion on notice by post or facsimile. Such vote shall be received by the Secretariat one month prior to the Meeting.
- 9.9. Voting by postal vote will be available only for motions on notice but an Executive Committee member may empower another Executive Committee member in good standing to speak at the Executive Committee Meeting on that absent members behalf.
- 9.10. Motions will be passed by a simple majority

10: General and Special Meetings

- 10.1. A General Meeting of Members of the Organization shall be held in conjunction with a Physical Therapy Congress in Mental health or at least once in every four (4) years if no Congress is held.
- 10.2. All Members of the Organization who are in good standing are entitled to send delegates to the Organization General Meeting.
- 10.3. Every Member may send maximum of three (3) delegates. The delegates must be authorized by the National Mental health subsection which they represent.
- 10.4. All delegates shall be physical therapists.
- 10.5. All delegates have a right to speak but only one delegate per Member may vote. Observers may be invited to speak.
- 10.6. Observer status may be granted to WCPT Member Organizations.
- 10.7. To transact business at a General meeting there shall be at least a majority of the Members who are in good standing present. Motions and officer elections will be passed by simple majority.
